Hendrik Roggemann, started his career as a business consultant in the IT industry. More than 10 years he worked in big software projects with international teams. During that time he started more to engage in the coaching of individuals and teams, and he completed different pieces of training in this field. Eventually, he decided to focus on the work with people independent of their working environment. Since then he works as coach and psychotherapist with clients on achieving their different goals. As a trained hypnotherapist and Certified Practitioner of the Completion Process (CPCP) by Teal Swan he is able to assist in the healing of deep emotional wounds and trauma.More info: www.clearvision-coaching.com

As a Possibility Management Trainer and certified Completion Process Practitioner, Christine Dürschner is equipped with a huge toolbox of initiation and healing techniques & processes. Since 7 years she is intensively researching the field of honest and radical communication within relationships. She was living for 6 years in an intentional community, where building and living a conscious relationship & communication culture is the main focus. During many pieces of training and thousands of hours working in the community field, she collected and tested many tools and settings, which empowers and enables us as individuals and groups to create heart-relationships.
